Ada kebahagiaan
yang tak bisa diukur.
Saat tangan saling berjabat,
saat tawa menggema
di seluruh ruang,
dan saat kehangatan
terasa tanpa banyak kata.

Selalu ada bersamamu
di setiap cerita..

The background of the image is a dark, richly textured wooden interior. A window is visible in the upper center, showing a glimpse of a bright outdoor scene with a sky transitioning from blue to yellow. The window is framed by dark wood and has two small black latches. To the right of the window, there is a vertical wooden panel with intricate, light-colored carvings of floral and geometric patterns. The overall lighting is warm and focused on the window area, creating a cozy and elegant atmosphere.

The background of the image features a traditional Indonesian gamelan instrument. It consists of several large, circular brass gongs (gong) arranged in a row, suspended by ropes from a dark wooden frame. Below the gongs is a large, red drum (bongga) with a wooden body and a red drumhead, also suspended by ropes. The entire scene is set against a dark, textured background, possibly a wall or a backdrop, with some decorative elements visible at the top.
